Complaints Management Process:

Initial Complaint:

- Fortem Financial Services receives notification of the complaint.
- If the complaint is an enquiry, the complaint will not be recorded in the complaints management system. The complaint will be handled either telephonically or by e-mail.
- If the complaint received is a reportable complaint, it is registered in the complaints management system, and a complaint reference number is allocated.
- The responsible person assigned to the complaint will contact the client and acknowledge the complaint within 24 hours of receiving it. The client will also be advised of the process that will be followed with regard to the complaint.
- An investigation is launched to resolve the complaint.
- Complaints need to be resolved within 4 weeks of receiving the complaint.
- Any delays experienced need to be communicated regularly with the complainant to ensure the complainant is aware of the complaint status, and actions being taken in order to resolve the complaint.
- Make contact with the client once the complaint has been resolved.
- The complaints management system is updated with regard to the status of the complaint and the outcome thereof.

Complaint Escalation Process:

- In the event that the client is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, they may request that the complaint be escalated to the independent arbitrator.
- The compliance manager and relevant department manager will provide all the information regarding the complaint, the outcome as well as the reason for the decision in writing for further escalation, to the independent arbitrator within 24 hours of receiving the clients request to escalate the complaint.
- The independent arbitrator will confirm the receipt of the complaint received for arbitration to Fortem Financial Services and the client within 24 hours of receiving the complaint.
- The status of the complaint will be updated in the complaints management system.
- The independent arbitrator will investigate the complaint, evidence provided as well as the written communication received by the client.
- Any delays experienced in resolving the complaint will be communicated regularly with the complainant to ensure the complainant is aware of the complaint's status, and actions being taken in order to resolve the complaint.
- The independent arbitrator will take reasonable steps to keep Fortem Financial Services informed of the progress relating to the complaint as well as their communication with the client. This ensures that Fortem Financial Services is aware that the complaint is still in the process of being resolved.
- The independent arbitrator will respond to the complainant advising the complainant of the outcome of the complaint, including the reasons for the decision made. The complainant
